walnut memorial

from the office of the senior pastor

Hello Family! Welcome Home! For some of you this may be your first Sunday back, while for others it may be that you have been coming back for a while. At any rate, we are glad to worship in one place together! There is just something about us all being together in one place that makes worship special.

If you are a guest, we welcome you home as well. I can attest to the fact that Walnut is a great church home for you if the Lord is leading you in this manner. Please, make yourself at home and join with us in worship!

I am excited to share with you a message today that I really feel is timely. We need to gather up, but we also need to wake up! That is what the message will be about today that I have called, "Awaken". Let's prepare our hearts for worship!

Rejoicing,
Pastor Travis
